*The Tower
1941*

Published by the Students of St. Edward's University

Bill Reynolds, Editor
Charles Kane, Business Manager

Foreword

After a lapse of ten years, the TOWER appears in a photogenic edition. Caught between the covers of this volume are scenes, glimpses of activities, and faces of beloved companions and acquaintances. Though we cannot capture in a book the friendly atmosphere of St. Edward's, it is our fond trust that the memories conjured up by glancing over this edition in future years will revive in your hearts the recollection of that spirit.

THE STAFF.

The Rev. Paul J. Foik, CSC, Ph. D.

TO THE REV. PAUL J. FOIK, C. S. C., Ph. D., in whose death we lost a friend, a model, and a confidant, we, the students of 1940-41, dedicate this volume of the Tower.

God Made a Nurse

God made a nurse
He made her heart, brave, true and kind.
And like the mountain streams her mind
As crystal clear, yet swift and deep
As where its waters, rush and sweep.
He made her hands strong, tender, skilled
Their touch with His own pity filled,
And gave to make His nurse complete,
A sense of humor wholesome, sweet.
God made a nurse.—Thank God.

The Florence Nightingale Pledge

I solemnly pledge myself before God and in the presence of this assembly to pass my life in purity and to practice my profession faithfully. I will abstain from whatever is deleterious and mischievous, and will not take or knowingly administer any harmful drug. I will do all in my power to maintain and elevate the standard of my profession and will hold in confidence all personal matters committed to my keeping and all family affairs coming to my knowledge in the practice of my calling. With loyalty will I endeavor to aid the physician in his work and devote myself to the welfare of those committed to my care.
