FACES IN THE CROWD

RELIGION

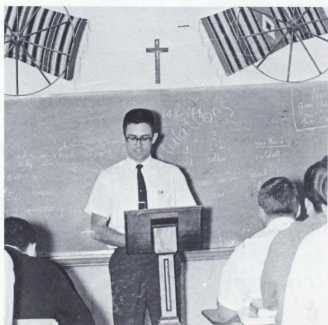

St. Edward's serves a distinct purpose: to prepare the educated student to live a moral life in a secular world. This is effected primarily through the influence and example of St. Edward's dedicated faculty, and secondarily, through the teaching of secular subjects from a Christian reference point. The success of this formula for spiritual welfare is pictured on the following pages.

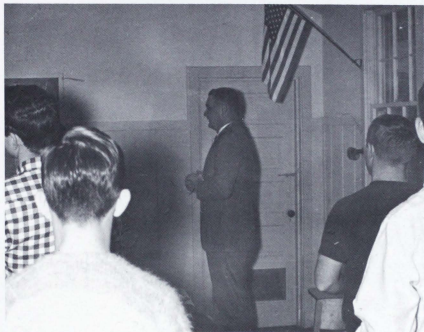

Religious training starts at the altar and . . .

continues in the classroom.

Student Council

Officers at weekly meeting

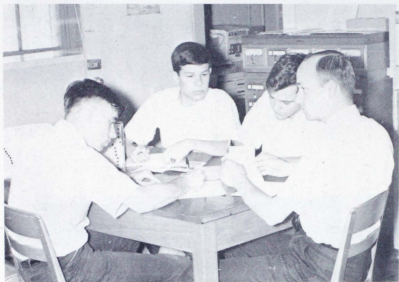

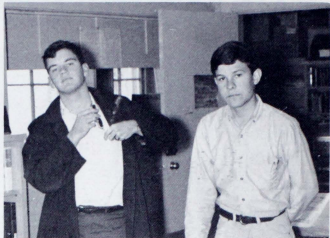

The twenty-three members of the Student Council met once a week every Monday during the homeroom period. In this meeting their various activities were planned. Their biggest successes were Top Night, the Christmas formal, Casaba Night, and the Sweetheart formal. This year, the Student Council moved into several new fields besides its usual work. The most extraordinary of these new areas was the Council's contribution of seventy dollars to CARE for use in Viet Nam.

WHAT, ME STUDY?

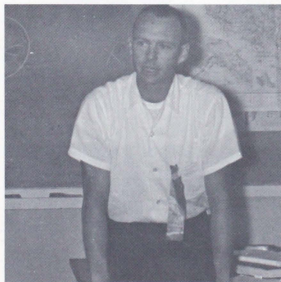

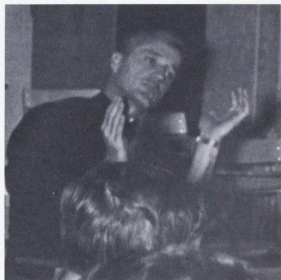

Brother Hubert...

... Have you been drinking?

All the classes in this school and I get stuck with SMSG geometry.

That's nothing. You should see my American history class.

What did you say?

And they said it couldn't be done!

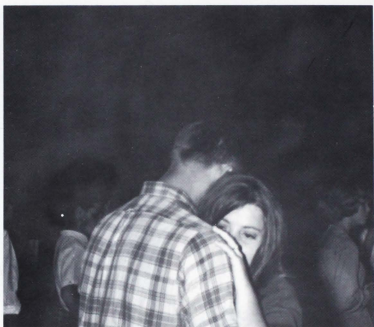

Good luck with Brother Dennis. Ha, ha!

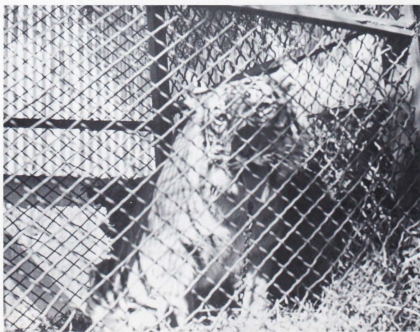

Whoops! We didn't need that print anyway.

The lady...

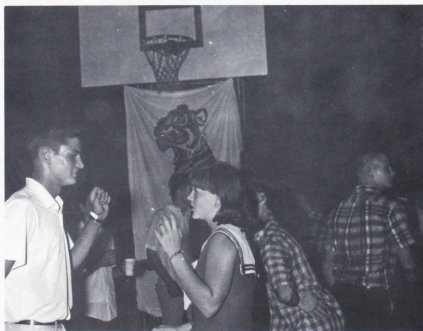

or the tiger?
