DEDICATION

The Staff of the 1959 Tower is proud to dedicate this book to Brother Raphael Wilson, C.S.C. Brother Raphael came to St. Edward's in January, 1948, shortly after the University was taken over by the Brothers of Holy Cross.

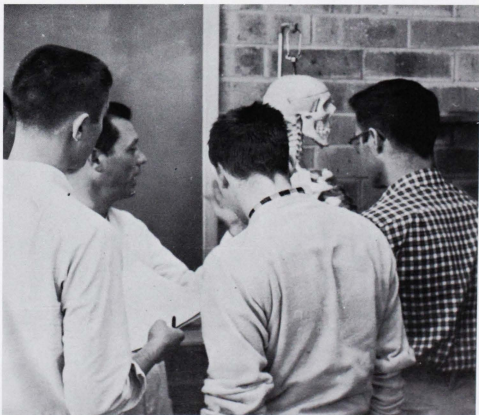

Since that time he has been active in all phases of University life—he has been Dean of the College, Director of Testing and Guidance, Rector, Prefect, Research Fellow at the University of Texas School of Medicine in Galveston, and Member of the Texas Basic Science Board, to mention but a few of the many things he has done.

Although Brother Raphael is noted for being an able administrator, an excellent supervisor, a friend and counselor to the students and an outstanding scholar, he is, above all, a good teacher. No higher praise could be given him.

GOODNIGHT, MR. DEAN

Mr. Monroe P. Dean was the watchman in Holy Cross Hall for six years, and in the truest sense, "a friend of the University." His sudden passing in October made us realize this more than ever. The news of his death caught us totally unaware. Mr. Dean had become, to us, so accepted, that to sign in after 10 p.m. on a week night devoid of his presence (it seldom ever happened) became a clumsy act. We also felt sorry that we never, really, got to know Mr. Dean well. Mr. Dean contributed a part of the warmth to each of us that has made the Hall a home. The assurance of his presence can, for us, never be duplicated. Good night, Mr. Dean. Requiescat in pace.

FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION

BROTHER RAYMOND FLECK, C.S.C., Ph.D.
PRESIDENT

June, 1959

Dear Graduate:

On rare occasions in years to come, you will open this book and relive for a few moments your senior year at St. Edward's University. It is for those occasions, rather than for the present moment, that I write these few lines.

During the formative years of your college education, and even now as those years draw to a close, you are hardly in a position to evaluate what you have received at St. Edward's. But as the years move along, and you stop occasionally to reflect on your college days, we hope you will find that St. Edward's was more than an experience bracketed by four years of your life. We trust that the spirit of St. Edward's will continue as a vital force in your life, and that the beginning of wisdom cultivated in your mind and heart will mature and bear fruit in the years ahead.

That God may grant an abundant harvest of wisdom and happiness for you and yours is our sincerest prayer, as you take your leave of the campus.

Wilbur Kohnle of El Paso, Texas, Jack McCollum of Chicago, Illinois, and Mark Ritter of Austin, Texas, were chosen by the senior class of 1959 to represent them during their last year at St. Edward's University. Wilbur, whose slogan of UNITY! helped win the elections, not only was active on the political scene at school, but also was noted for being a basketball star. Jack, an accounting major, had been referred to as "The Hilltop's Organizational Fire-ball" because of his activity in so many clubs and other organizations. Mark Ritter, an active member of the Commerce Forum, was one of the first day students ever to be elected a class officer.

SENIOR CLASS - 1959

In September, 1955, a large group of young men arrived at St. Edward's and enrolled as Freshmen. They were shown their rooms in old Andre Hall or in Sorin Hall, they were given a smoker, a Welcome Frosh dance, and a schedule of classes. Pretty soon their number began to dwindle. Some stayed only a few days. Some were there for the rest of the year, but when the group moved over to Holy Cross Hall in the fall of 1956, there were many faces missing. Those who remained valiantly tried to beat some humility into the new mob of Freshmen, and then began to reminisce on the good old days in Andre Hall. Before the year was over they saw a new Andre Hall begin to take shape. In September 1957 there were even fewer in the class. They saw the new Andre Hall completed and their old home-for-a-year towed across the campus to the scholasticate. Pretty soon work began on the new Science Building. Then, this last September, a handful of these who started in 1955 returned to St. Edward's. These are the seniors of 1959.

1959 TOWER STAFF

We, the members of the 1959 Tower Staff, are proud to have been able to bring you this pictorial history of the school year at St. Edward's University. This book would not have been possible if it were not for the able assistance of the many students who, although not members of the staff, willingly gave their time and talents to the production of this yearbook.

Bernard Cleary, Photographer, Pat Hamill, Editor-in-Chief, Marvin Cavallino, Sports Editor.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES COUNCIL

The Student Activities Council is made up of the presidents of the various clubs, organizations, and classes of St. Edward's University. Its official purpose is to coordinate student affairs so that there will not be any conflicts in campus sponsored functions. However, the "SAC" actually does a great deal more than that and serves as a form of student government. It not only makes suggestions on rules and regulations to the administration, but also takes care of such things as campus traffic, intra-campus relationships, and financial assistance to clubs which are sponsoring student functions.

This year the Student Activities Council made several changes in student life. Perhaps the greatest of these was obtaining two one o'clock permissions for resident Seniors.

The SAC also managed to do something this year which had been but a wistful dream in the past, and that is, it was actually able to coordinate the school functions of St. Edward's, Seton Hall, and St. Mary's Academy so that there were no conflicts in the activities of these three closely related institutions.

The St. Edward's University Hilltopper, and her younger sister the mimeographed Tableau which appeared once a week during the latter part of the year, served as organs of dissemination of information as well as reservoirs of the ideas, opinions, beliefs and even complaints of the student body during the school year. The crusading editorials of these papers had an effect on the campus, and were actually heeded by both the students and the administration.

BROTHER CORNELIUS CORCORAN, C.S.C.
Moderator of the Student Court

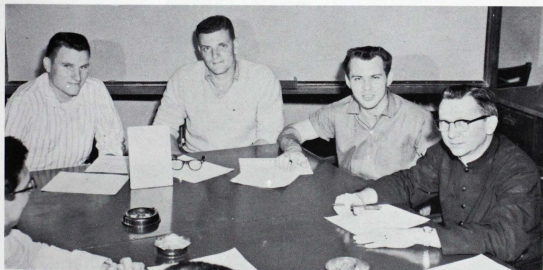

This year we saw the formation of the Student Court at St. Edward's University. For many years students have felt that they should have some sort of court which could make decisions on infractions of the rules. Then, under the leadership of Brother Cornelius Corcoran, C.S.C., and Oz Haythorne the idea of the student court blossomed into the organization it now is.

The Court was placed under the jurisdiction of the Prefect of Discipline, and its functions were defined as "an organization which shall enforce the regulations of St. Edward's University, and which shall suggest punishment for infractions of these regulations." It enforced the school regulations by constant reminders to the student body of the regulations; and by quiet suggestions, rather than by force, it was able to create a respect for the rules concerning student attire and behavior at public functions.

The court was the subject of great controversy. Some were opposed to it, but the overwhelming majority was for it. Although there were vehement accusations against the court as in the "Bulls on Campus" article in the Tableau, for the most part the student body seemed to feel that the Court was an organization which was doing the school and themselves a great service.

Perhaps the greatest compliment to the court is the fact that every student who was punished by the court felt that the court had been just.

The Knights of Columbus Council No. 2559 was founded over twenty-five years ago and it is now one of the most active clubs on the St. Edward's campus. This year there were fifty members on campus and one hundred and fifty off campus belonging to the St. Ed's Council.

Among the more familiar activities of the K of C's are the annual Hayride each fall and a Boatride in the spring which occasionally does not quite make it due to weather and other difficulties. Other activities not quite so well known included providing children of Cristo Rey Parish with a free breakfast every Sunday after they attend catechism classes. Also, each year the Knights give the children of the Home of the Holy Infancy in Austin new Easter outfits. On the third Sunday of each month the members participate in a Corporate Communion at the nine o'clock Mass. Each year the Knights cooperate with the St. Ed's Commerce Forum in sponsoring a picnic.

The Press Club is made up of members of the Hilltopper staff, the Tower staff, the play-producing staff, and members at large. It is one of the most active clubs on campus, and the one which affects the students the most in many ways. Although the Press Club does not put on any strictly social activities, it is in charge of the Hilltop Capers, the annual school play, the Dutch-Irish day festivities, and the Man of the Year and Sweetheart contests. Besides these activities, the Press Club is in charge of all student publications, including the Hilltopper, the Tower, the Tableau and Nibs. This year the Press Club also sponsored two forums on contemporary problems. One was on existentialism and the other was concerned with the problem of the beat generation.

Athletic Director
Brother Lucian Bliersch, C.S.C.

In his second year as Athletic Director, Brother Lucian worked hard to help the teams at St. Ed's and did everything possible to help athletics, both varsity and intramural. The intramural program especially reflected his efforts.

Coach Ed Norris

Coach Norris, one of the most highly praised coaches in the Big State Conference, lived up to that reputation. With a lack of notable player experience, he developed a good basketball team, a team that gave its all, whether ahead or behind in the score. The same was true in baseball.

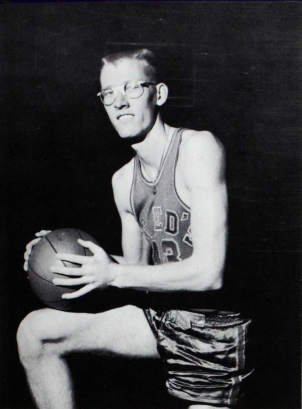

Brother Edmund Hunt, C.S.C.

Brother Edmund, although he officially held no position connected with athletics, was always ready with a helping hand for the athletic department. He built the bleachers for the gym and was always an interested spectator at the athletic contests.

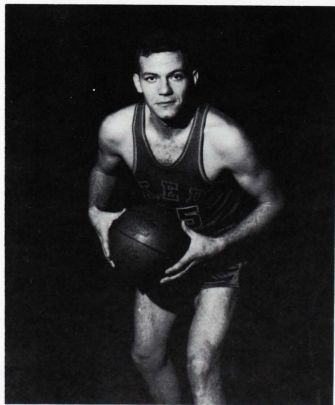

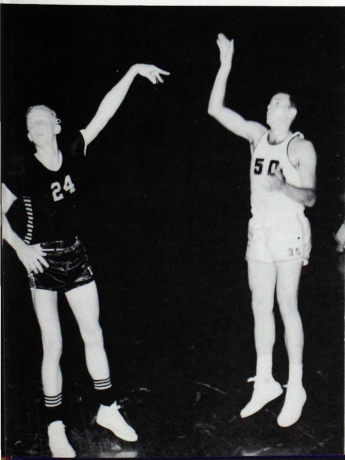

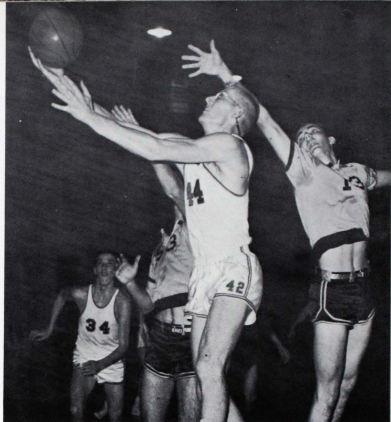

Student Manager
Fred Arms

Fred, a freshman this year, was the student manager for the varsity teams. Besides being manager, he participated in intramural sports.

Wilbur Kohnle
4-Year Letterman
All-Conference

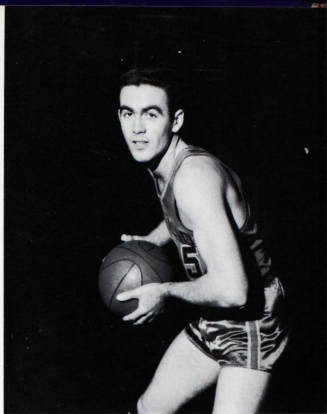

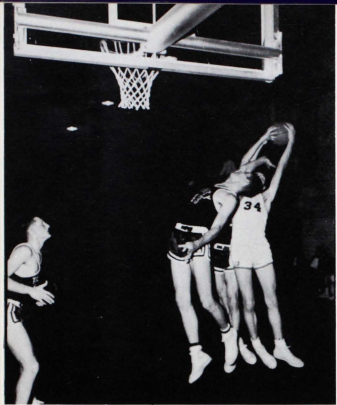

Wilbur Kohnle — As a senior, Wilbur led the team in scoring with a 16.6 average per game. This was good for third place in conference scoring. It was also Wilbur's third year on the Big State Conference team. Wilbur's desire and spirit was an inspiration for the team.

Charles Popp
4-Year Letterman

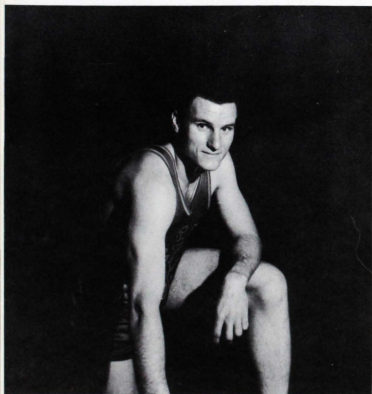

Charles Popp — "C", as he is known around campus, graduated this year. Charley, although injured, demonstrated a hustling and fighting spirit which greatly aided the team. He was especially tough on rebounds.

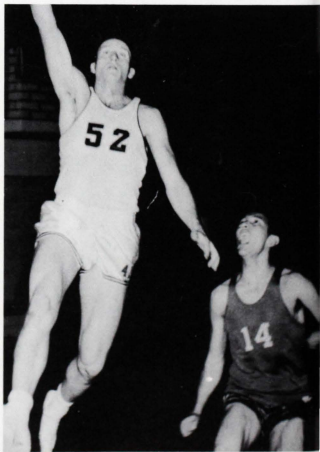

Tom Board
3-Year Letterman

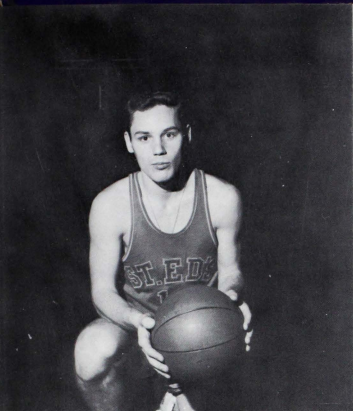

Tom Board — Tom was injured most of the year and was able to play in only five games. When he did play he showed an ability to drive under the baskets and an ability to be the playmaker of the team.

Ted Popp
3-Year Letterman

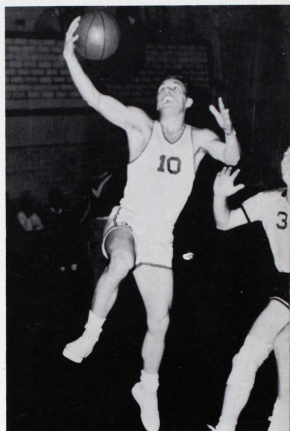

Ted Popp — Ted was our most steady ball player. The 6'2" Junior from Indiana excelled at clearing the backboards of rebounds while playing a good floor game.

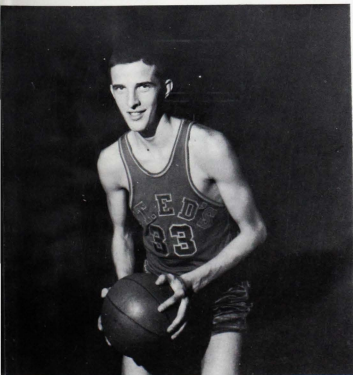

Ken Reimer
2-Year Letterman

Ken Reimer — Ken won his second varsity letter this year. His specialty was jump shot which proved very effective in keeping the defense loose.

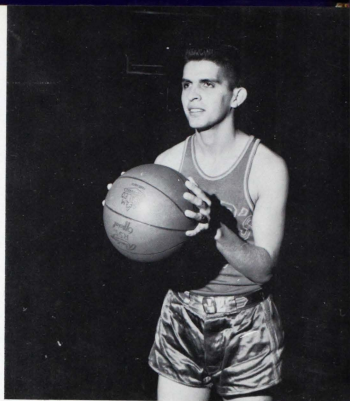

James O'Keefe
1-Year Letterman

James O'Keefe — As a freshman, "Slim" lead the team in rebounds and was second in team scoring. He was named to the All-Conference Second Team.

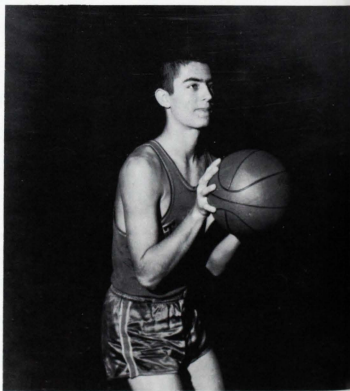

Felipe Waterwall
1-Year Letterman

Felipe Waterwall — Better known as Phil, this 5'8" Junior College transfer from Houston showed a great deal of hustle this year. Phil's best shot was a two-handed set shot. Phil earned his first varsity letter at St. Ed's.

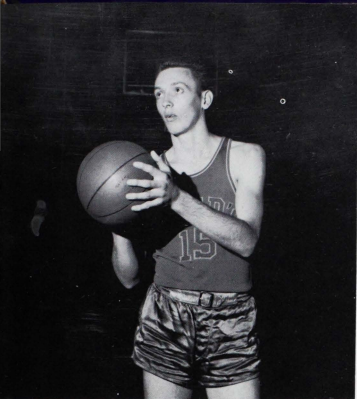

Dave Eckstein
1-Year Letterman

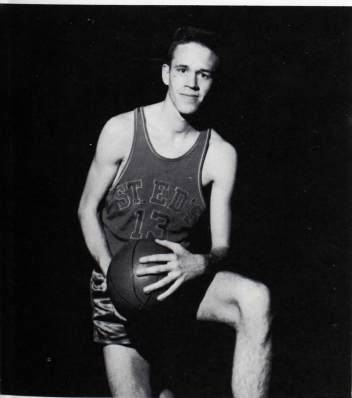

Dave Eckstein — Dave, as a freshman, earned his varsity letter. He ranked third in team scoring and was effective in driving under the baskets although hampered by an injured knee.

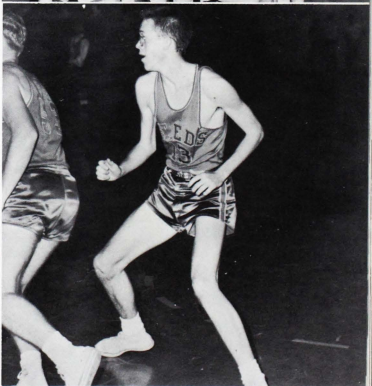

Vince Richbourg
Squadman

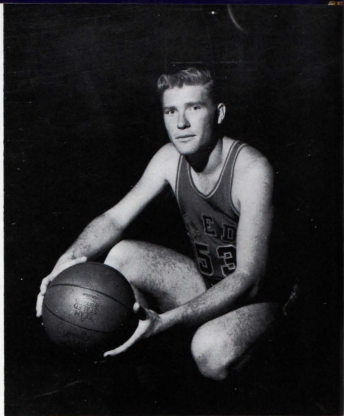

Vince Richbourg — Vince did not play enough to letter this year. He did gain some game experience which Coach Norris counts on for next year.

Robert Kamm
Squadman

Bob Kamm — Bob did not earn his varsity letter this year. Bob did show a great deal of hustle and spirit in the games he did play.

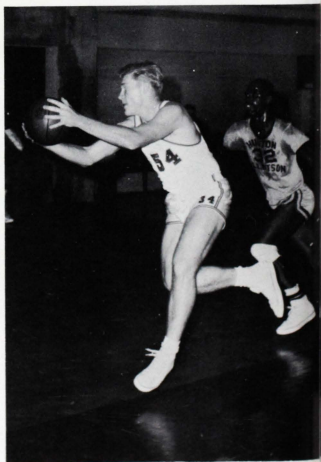

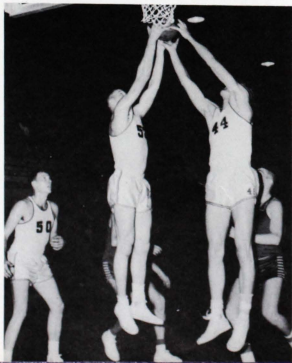

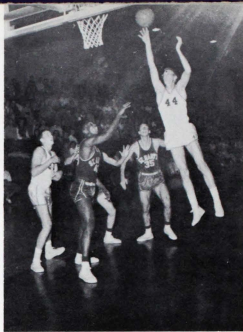

Joseph Van Gale
Squadman

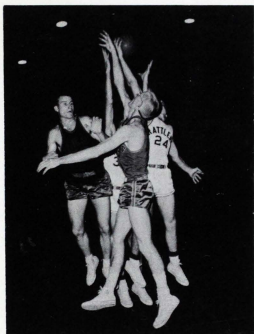

Joseph Van Gale — Joseph saw only limited action this year, but he is expected to see more next year. Joe was hard to move under the backboards.

 7 games rained out

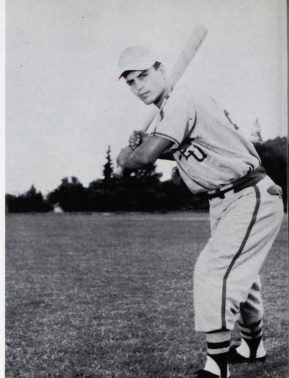

This year's edition of the Baseball team was one of which Edsmen could be proud. With only one Senior regular, the team won four and lost one during the first week of play. Then the team hit a streak of bad luck and dropped three games in a row.

But probably the most disappointing factor of the whole season was the rain which forced the cancellation of seven conference games. The team could have done much better with this extra experience.

WELCOME

FROSH

On September 13, St. Edward's was flooded with 72 wide-eyed Freshmen, eager to buy Andre Hall elevator passes and used "Little Black Books" with one-hundred names, addresses, and telephone numbers. The first week of college life ended with the annual "G" Club dance. Then the Frosh donned their "E" beanies and proceeded to please the upper classmen in every way they could, such as cleaning their rooms, serving them a meal, and pushing peanuts up the hill. The Frosh also, to prove their ability and school spirit built a large bonfire, one of the most successful in the history of the school.

"One set-up—I mean one Seven-Up please."

OH! Johnny you ole rascal you, what are you up to now?

THE ILAC PING-PONG TOURNAMENT

Doubles

Terror of the Ping-Pong table

Every year the Italo-Latin American Club presents a ping-pong tournament which is open to all students of the University. There are three divisions, the open division, the novice division for those who do not play ping-pong expertly, and the doubles division. There is always a lot of interest in the tournament, and this year the finals were played in the gymnasium so that everyone could watch with ease. The winners of each division were awarded trophies at the Italo-Latin American dance, the Hilltop Fiesta.

THIS CAMERA CAUGHT PROGRESS IN ACTION

This year students have seen much improvement on campus. Such needed improvements as a new lawn put in between Congress Avenue and the Science Building, street lights throughout the campus, new roads and sidewalks, and bettering of the baseball diamond. This progress has made St. Ed's a more pleasant place to live.

"A HATFUL

This year the Press Club presented its annual play in early spring. The play was "A Hatful of Rain" by Michael Gazzo; it is a story of how a man's life and family is ruined by his addiction to morphine.

The play was an all-student production. It was directed by Pat Hamill. Jack McCollum was cast as Johnnie, the dope addict. Clair Gaines, a graduate of St. Mary's Academy played the part of his wife. Johnnie's belligerent father was played by Vic Kramer, and Sonny Viscardi took the part of his brother. Bob Helms, Robert

"My son, a junkie?"

THE PLAY FOR '59

of RAIN"

Kamm and Edward Downes were three cool dope peddlers out for everything they could get from Johnnie or his harassed family.

The play was presented on two successive nights and it drew a large audience from Austin as well as from the campus.

Apparently the months spent by members of the Press Club in casting, rehearsing, reading, staging, and all the other things that go to making a play were not in vain, for many felt that "A Hatful of Rain" was one of the finest dramatic productions presented at St. Edward's.

"C'm here, junkie, I've got something for you!"

"Cut it out, Dad, can't you see he's sick?"

... I'd like to report a dope addict."

THE ANNUAL SPRING FORMAL...

Doga, Scaperlanda, Cavallino, pineapple centerpiece, and friends.

The Spring Formal is presented in early May by the Junior class. It is the biggest social function of the year. At the Spring Formal the Sweetheart of St. Edward's University is crowned by the president of the Student Activities Council, and the Man of the Year is presented a trophy by the president of the University.

This year the Formal was held in the Terrace Motel Ballroom. The motif of a "South Pacific Paradise" was enhanced by tropical centerpieces on the tables and a large mural painted especially for that occasion.

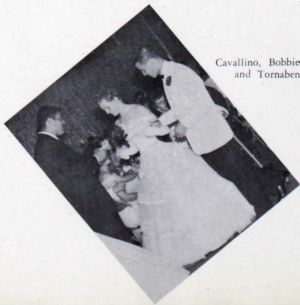

It was felt that this year's Spring Formal was probably the most successful one held in years.

ST. EDWARD'S SWEETHEART... DONNA SUE HOLLAN

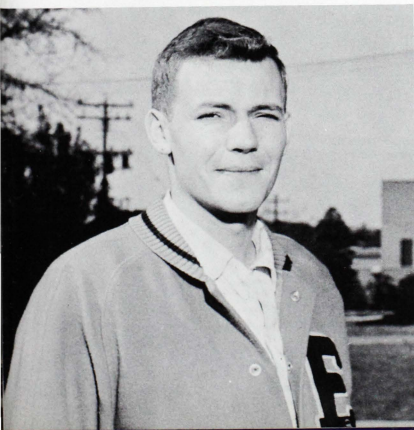

Miss Donna Sue Hollan, of Corpus Christi, Texas, was chosen Sweetheart of St. Edward's University by a vote of all the students, and was crowned at the Spring Formal by Shaun O'Brien, President of the Student Activities Council. Miss Hollan is a Junior at the Seton Hospital School of Nursing, a member of the Texas Student Nurse Association, and the Sodality.

Donna, who was nominated by the "E" Club, was escorted by Ted Popp.

MAN OF THE YEAR... CHARLES POPP

The students of St. Edward's University this year chose Charles Popp as Man of the Year for he was, in their opinion, the outstanding Edsman of 1958—59.

Charles Popp, more commonly called "C", a Business Administration major from Memphis, Indiana, is one of a line of brothers who proved their prowess on the basketball court. "C" just completed his fourth year as a member of the Hilltopper squad.

Charlie graduated from Silver Creek High School in Sellersburg, Indiana, in 1955.

At St. Edward's he belonged to the Student Activities Council, the Knights of Columbus, and the Indiana Club. He coached an Intramural Basketball team, and was President of the "E" (lettermen's) Club.

Graduation Exercises—May 1959

AND FINALLY ... GRADUATION

The school year culminates with the graduation exercises. After four arduous years filled with study, cramming, late night preparations for exams and also a little fun, the seniors of 1959 stepped up onto the stage in Memorial Gymnasium and received their degrees. For most of them it was the final achievement of their formal education, for all of them it was the end to a chapter in their lives.
