ST. EDWARD'S HILLTOPPER

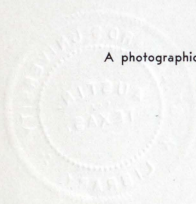

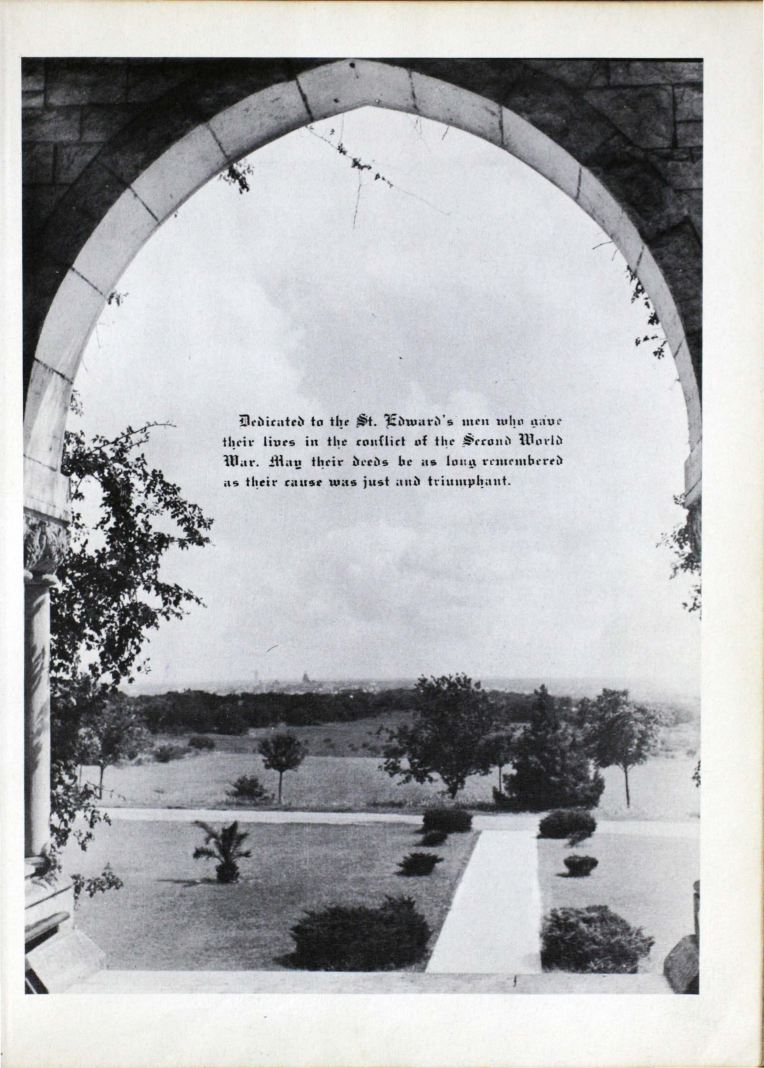

THE TOWER

A photographic remembrance of the Hilltop happenings of 1945-46.

ST. EDWARD'S MILITARY ACADEMY

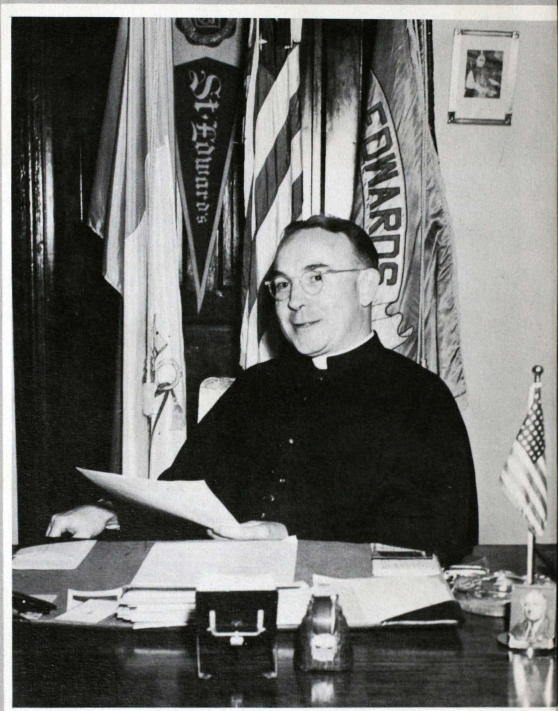

Austin, Texas

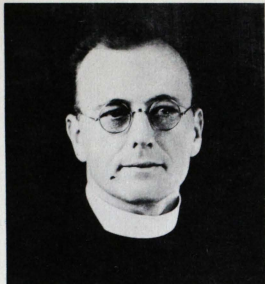

Dedicated to the St. Edward's men who gave their lives in the conflict of the Second World War. May their deeds be as long remembered as their cause was just and triumphant.

As a military school, St. Edward's started class in 1945 rated one of the four Honor Schools among the 55C units organized within the Eighth Corps Area.

During the summer word had been received from Colonel G. R. Mauger in Dallas that the results of the spring federal inspection had been tabulated and that the Hilltop Academy was among the few to win the highest honors.

The Eighth Service Command comprises the states of Texas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Arkansas, and New Mexico.

ELGIN:

Inexperience told against the Tigers in their opener with Elgin. With the new coach having only recently taken over, the Edmen had not been able to develop any smoothness or savoir-faire. Except for two miscues, however, the Edmen gave the spectators their money's worth.

The Wildcats scored in the second quarter on a breakaway play, and again in the third quarter when green Hilltop quarterbacking handed over the ball on downs on the Tiger thirty.

BURNETT:

Breaking through to smother two attempted punts at the very outset of the game with Burnett, the Tigers kept the Bulldogs barking their shins against their own goal posts most of the evening. The score came in the second quarter after a pass-completion, Serrano to Jordan, and an end-around sweep by Zapalac to the one-yard mark, where Serrano plunged over.

ROUND ROCK:

Tigermen were edged by the margin of a flea's upper lip in their game with the Dragons, out-scoring Round Rock in everything except points after touchdown in a heart-strangling thriller that ended 21-20.

Hilltopper gridmen counted with three touchdowns and a touchback, which total the Dragons edged with their three TD's and a perfect record of extra points.

ST. ANTHONY

Ripping through for a TD early in the second quarter, the Tigers walked off with their second straight win over the Jackets. Strong defensive play when pushed deep into their own backyard kept the locals from having to settle for a tie.

LANERI:

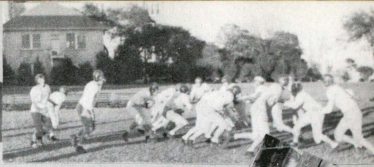

Romping to an easy win over Laneri, the Tigers smashed over four touchdowns in the first half to take the measure of the Micks. Three plays after the opening whistle the SEA-men had hit pay dirt. Other scores followed in rapid succession as the Hilltoppers bottled up the Fort Worth attack.

JESUIT HIGH:

With the Trad-to-Hlavaty pass-combination working for two touchdowns in the first half and with Ernie Serrano scintillating down field on an 85-yard punt-return in the second, the Tigers succeeded in turning back Jesuit High in Dallas. The game was played in the famous Cotton Bowl.

CENTRAL CATHOLIC:

This one looked as if it were going to be a rout in the first few minutes. Edmen put across one touchdown in the first five minutes, threatening again minutes later. As the rain-softened sod began to loosen up under their feet, however, the Tigers suddenly lost their drive, the half ending 7-7. In the second half the locals were helpless against the heavier visitors.

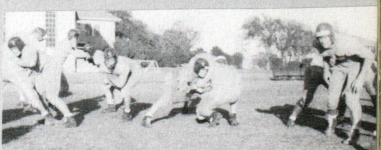

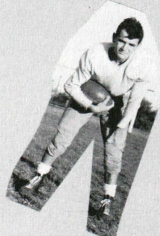

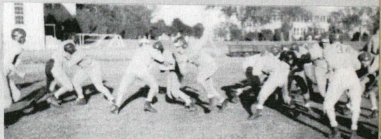

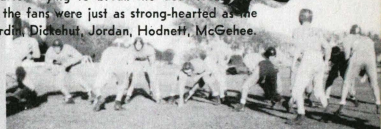

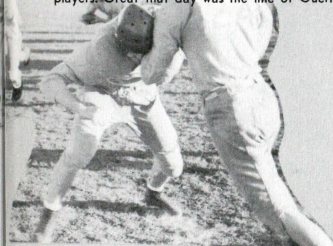

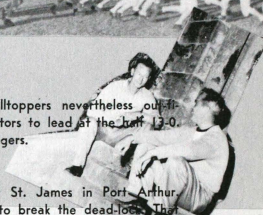

ALLEN HIGH:

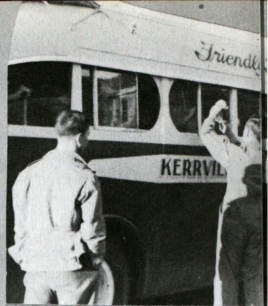

Considerably outweighed by the behemoths from Bryan, the Hilltoppers nevertheless out-finessed their visitors for Homecoming, running circles around their visitors to lead at the half 13-0. Trad, Hlavaty, Ernie Serrano, Bausch, and Jordan stood out for the Tigers.

PORT ARTHUR:

Dream-game of the year for thrills was the final contest against St. James in Port Arthur. Both teams played like unleashed tornadoes in the last quarter trying to break the dead-lock. That no one died of heart-attack is attributable to the fact that the fans were just as strong-hearted as the players. Great that day was the line of Guerra, Kralis, Hardin, Dickhut, Jordan, Hodnett, McGehee.
