Dr. Simon Scribner

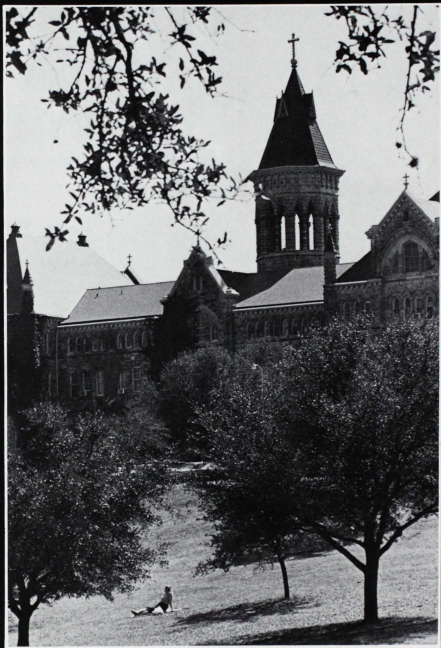

We are one in the Spirit, we are one in the Lord
We are one in the Spirit, we are one in the Lord

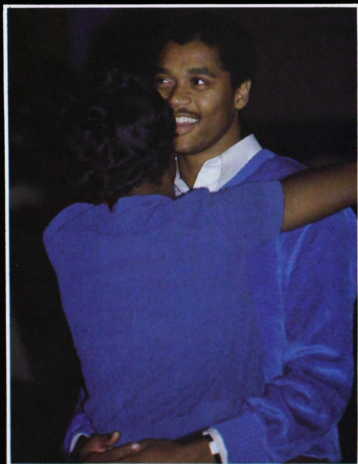

And we pray that all unity may one day be restored.

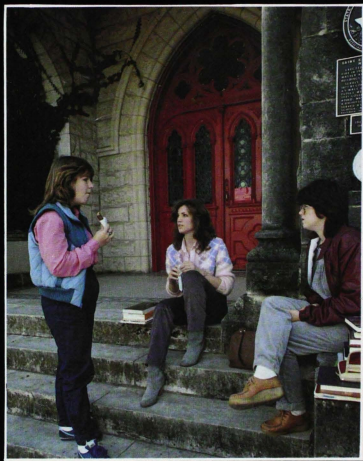

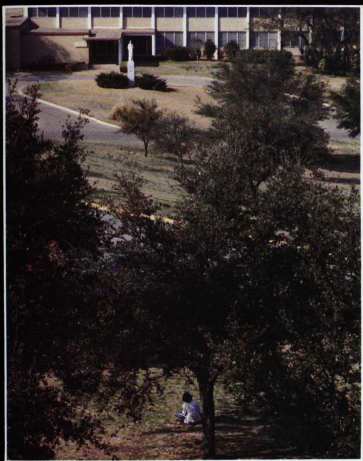

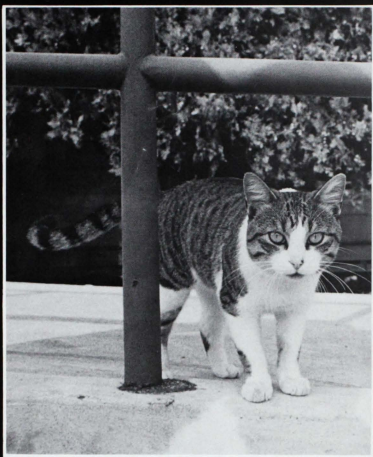

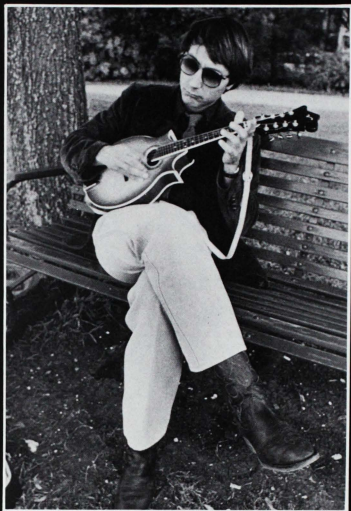

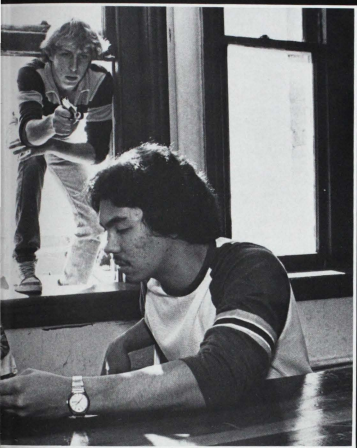

We will walk with each other, we will walk hand in hand
We will walk with each other, we will walk hand in hand

And together we'll spread the news that God is in our land.

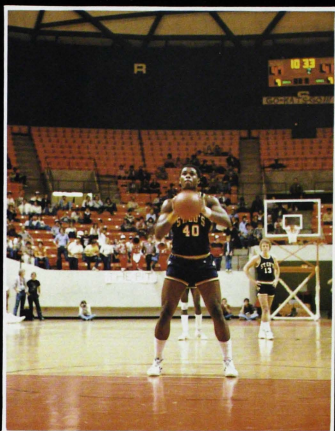

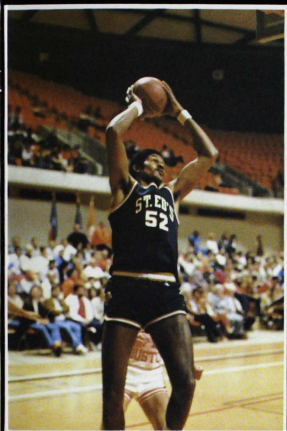

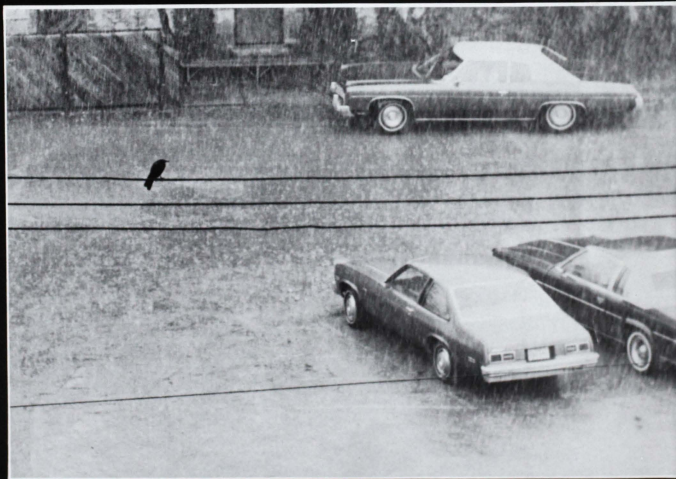

We will work with each other, we will work side by side
We will work with each other, we will work side by side

And we'll guard each man's dignity and save each man's pride.

STUDENT LIFE

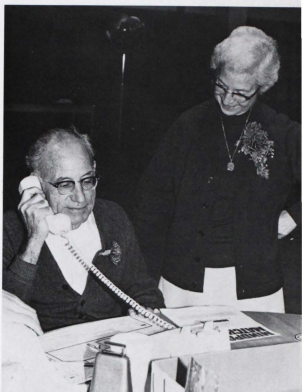

Phoning Friends for Funds

The St. Edward's University fourth annual Alumni Phonothon raised $116,000 in 1981—$16,000 over the set goal. The Phonothon is sponsored by the University Development Office, which coordinates the volunteer efforts of students, faculty, staff, and alumni.

This year's fund-raiser was directed by 1980 graduate, Tina Kelbaugh. The student steering committee was composed of senior Jim Franz, and juniors Terri Lopez and Mike Guerra. Faculty chairpersons were Sr. Marie Andre Walsh and Br. William Dunn.

At the culmination of the week, the top donation-getter was awarded a grand prize. Freshman Tony Cutaia won a Spring Break trip to Port Aransas. Dick Stone, from the class of 1967, was the leading person from the alumni volunteers.

The Hill's a Poppin' with Spooks 'n' Spirits

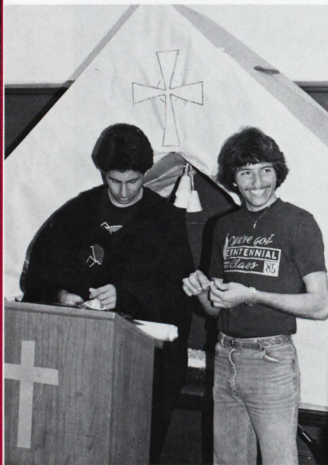

Spooks, ghosts, witches, clowns—not what you usually find on a college campus, is it? Well, St. Ed's on Halloween eve isn't the usual college campus. On this night strange beings were seen, as students, faculty, and staff participated in the costume contest.

The contest was part of the Halloween Carnival, which was sponsored by the Student Activities Council (SAC). Besides the costume contest, there were many booths—kissing (always popular at St. Ed's!), pie throwing, marriage—and of course, divorce, fortune telling, and many others to add excitement.

The Halloween Carnival is an annual event, but each year holds its own "treat." The country band "Southern Rain" provided music for Halloween 1981, as everyone two-stepped around the Union Center. The evening came to a close with the showing of the horror movie "Friday the 13th."

The Littlest Circus

St. Edward's University proudly presents the Royal Lichtenstein Quarter-Ring Circus . . .

Clown stunts, magic, animal acts, juggling feats, and incredible acrobatics made "The World's Smallest Circus" a big hit on campus. The troupe, founded by Father Nick Weber, began its unique ministry in California and has since performed in churches and on school campuses all over the country. Father Nick serves as the ringmaster of the show. Jens Larsen, Robert Lee, Stephen De Saulniers and Nancy Oleson were Nick's young accompanists.

"Kids" of all ages enjoyed the stunts, mimes and stories performed in the open arena behind the Main Building, November 19. The event was sponsored by the St. Edward's Campus Ministry.

Nancy Oleson plays a circus tune.

Animals also perform in the circus.

A Rainbow of Culture

Wednesday, November 4, 1981, was set aside as a special day to celebrate the presence of the many international students attending St. Edward's. International Day was an opportunity for students from the multitude of nations represented here to exhibit aspects of their native cultures. Exotic dancers, interesting music, and cuisine from other lands were available to make International Day a festive occasion for all students.

Along with the food and entertainment portions of International Day, three St. Ed's students, Shahida Nigar, Zuhmia Kuzbar and Arlette Vila—participated in an international women's forum. The three discussed the customs and traditions of women in their countries, and answered questions from the audience about women's roles around the world.

International Day was an informative, interesting, and colorful day for all of the students and faculty who joined in celebrating the broad spectrum of foreign nations and customs of which St. Edward's is so proud.

A Prayer for Peace

Calling for peace in a nuclear age was the theme carried out by St. Edward's students and faculty members who participated in the Day for World Peace. Celebrated (by St. Ed's and others around Austin) Friday, November 20, 1981, it was a special day of fasting, praying, discussing and singing the virtues of a peaceful world. Bishop Leroy Matthiesen of Amarillo was the principal celebrant at a peace vigil in the Moody Atrium. Also on the agenda was the Rev. Bryan Hehir, director of the Office of International Justice and Peace of the U.S. Catholic Conference in Washington, D.C. Rev. Hehir presented a lecture on "The Nuclear Arms Race: The Church's Position." Bishop John E. McCarthy, the auxiliary of Galveston-Houston Diocese, and the Most Rev. Vincent M. Harris, Bishop of Austin, were special guests at the prayer vigil and lecture.

The day ended with prayer and song at the Grotto. Approximately 50 students braved the cold weather to show their support for a more harmonious world.

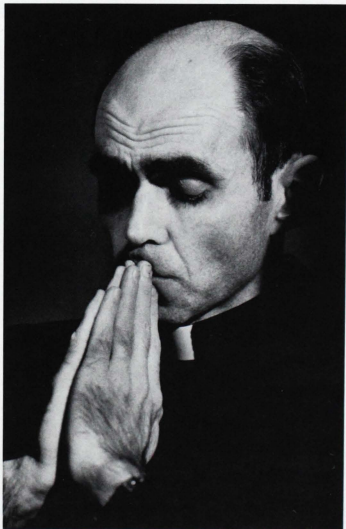

The Day for World Peace made everyone aware of the horrors of the nuclear age in which we live. It also showed us that we must all work peacefully in order to achieve the justice and peace all human beings deserve.

Coffeehouses

Thursday nights proved to be popular as the Student Activities Council sponsored a variety of live performers in the ReUnion. These Coffeehouses offered tired students the opportunity to get away from the books and enjoy cold beer and fine music.

Of the many Coffeehouses, folk singers Mike Williams and Lindsay Haisley electrified audiences with their high energy and original brands of music. Tish Hanley and David Rodriguez entertained students with songs they could identify with.

The Coffeehouses were a welcome relief to studied-out students. Their popularity demonstrated by the large audiences proved that the Coffeehouses were appreciated.

Wake Up With Mike and Bob

Mike Guerra and Bob Treasure, St. Edward's DJ's in the morning.

Every Friday morning from 8 to 12, the St. Edward's campus heard the best of the old and new tunes on "FM Wake-Up."

This novel idea brought out two DJ's—Mike Guerra and Bob Treasure. Added later in the year were two more DJ's—Denise Klodnicki and Carol Foran.

A budget of $100 and borrowed equipment and albums put the two guys in business. Before long, they were getting praise and fame around campus for their "Wake-Up" music and Friday morning banter. FM Wake-Up was a good way to start the weekend at St. Ed's.

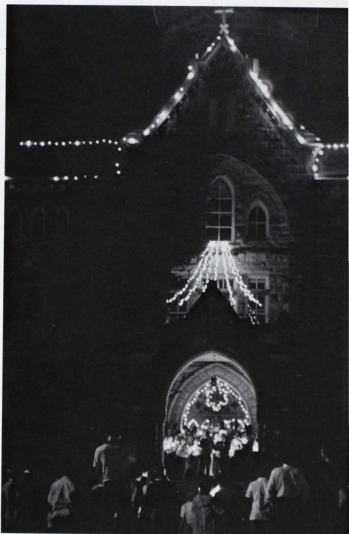

Music filled the air on Friday mornings during the fall as people talked, read the Hilltopper, or waited for class to begin.

Lights Upon the Hill

Carrying on a two-year-old tradition, Ol' Main was once again brilliantly aglow throughout the Christmas season. Once again, the St. Edward's Edsmen organized the setting up of the lights and the ceremony that took place the evening the lights were first unveiled. On Friday, December 11, the Omni Choir gathered on the steps of the Main Building and entertained the large crowd with Christmas music both old and new. Finally, the switch was thrown, turning the multi-colored array of decorative lights on in full splendor. The audience responded with initial oohs and ahhs that quickly turned to hearty cheering. Christmas is here!

The Celebration of Lights, while still a relatively new tradition here, is one of the most beautiful and moving ceremonies St. Edward's offers. The glory and splendor of the lights, combined with the happiness, love and good cheer of Christmas, helped us all to realize the significance of this, the most Holy of all seasons.

Brown Bag Series

The Student Activities Council realized that many students prefer daytime programs. Scheduling activities around the lunch hour provided more students, staff and faculty a chance to enjoy guest speakers, musicians and comedians. The cafeteria arranged to have students reserve brown bag lunches (SAC lunches!). This way, anyone in the St. Edward's community could enjoy fine entertainment and, well, cafeteria food.

Dave Rudolph, a music and comedy talent much like Martin Mull, kicked off the Brown Bag Series in the Union with such renditions as "Go Play in the Traffic" and the Catholic theme song "I've Got Rhythm (and Ten Kids)." Local mime and juggler Mario Lorenz dazzled and baffled his audiences on the Patio, in the Cafe and at the Reunion. Lorenz also incorporated into his act many SEU "volunteers," enabling students to see their peers make (in many instances) complete fools of themselves.

Other than singers and comics, SAC provided guest speakers on such topics as Rape Prevention, Reaganomics and Legal Issues and the College Student.

Black History Month

Yolantha Harrison.

Once again, February was set aside as Black History Month. On the St. Edward's campus, that meant a myriad of speakers, films and assorted other related activities.

One of the most popular guest speakers was poet Rayfer Earl'e Mainor. Mainor was the recipient of Cambridge, England's International Who's Who Bronze Medal in Poetry. Mainor performed some of his works and conducted two workshops on publishing.

Another favorite guest was Yolantha Harrison, actress and graduate of The University of Texas and Pennsylvania State University, where she taught theater for three years. This multitalented mime and actress presented a glorious one-woman show, "From a Black Woman's Heart."

Black History Month is also the time when the struggles and prejudices everyone fights are highlighted with a togetherness theme. That perspective was not lost at St. Edward's. A special Mass was held February 28 focusing on the love and faith it takes to overcome prejudice. The over-all theme for Black History Month 1982 was a simple Swahili saying: "Upendano, Umoja, Na Kusaidiana." Translated, it means: "Love, Togetherness and Devotion."

New Library Unveiled

More than 300 people were present February 14, 1982 as the new $3.5 million Scarborough-Phillips Library was dedicated. New York Public Library President Vartan Gregorian was the keynote speaker at the Sunday afternoon ceremony. Also present were State Senator Lloyd Doggett and the Most Reverend Vincent M. Harris, Bishop of Austin. Doggett and Harris both addressed the audience briefly.

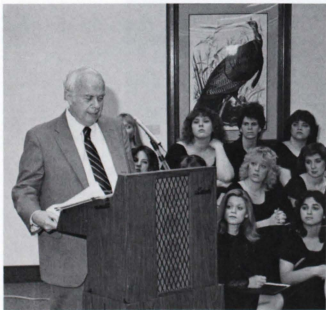

The new library is named for Inez Scarborough Phillips and Loyce Phillips. Their daughter, Lavon Phillips, donated $1 million to St. Edward's in memory of her parents to build the library.

The Hilltopper Choral, under the direction of Brother Gerald Muller, C.S.C., provided music for the dedication. Karol Anne Badget, assistant music director, arranged the piece "Exultet: Rejoice" under special commission for the dedication.

The Sunday dedication was only a part of the hectic weekend of library activities. Also included was a gathering Friday evening for faculty, staff, senior class members, Austin Alumni and student leaders. The Omni Choir performed and a reception followed.

Saturday evening, Brother Stephen Walsh, University President, was host to more than 200 people, including major donors, trustees, and Austin business people.

The new library, completed five months ahead of schedule, provides services for students and faculty alike. New additions include a typing room, lounge, conference rooms and rooms for group study.

Role of Women Celebrated

From March 21 to March 26, 1982, St. Edward's University celebrated the role women play in society as well as spotlighted the difficulties women still face, as SAC sponsored Women's Week. The week was highlighted by different events each day, beginning with an opening Mass, prepared by women and all lay portions performed by women.

During the week of activities such problems as prejudice and stereotyping were dealt with candidly. Martha Cotera, Austin Chicana leader, presented a seminar on "The Chicana Presence." Ms. Cotera spoke of the ethnic and sexual barricades many women face.

Other activities during the week included a Brown Bag Rape Prevention discussion. Also, Janie Milner, Director of Career Planning for the St. Edward's Educational Planning Center, held a workshop designed to enlighten women on the ways they can market the skills they possess. Women's Week ended Friday, March 26. That day, female musicians and singers from St. Edward's held a "Women in Music" concert on the Patio. On Friday evening, sophomore Liz Hernandez and faculty member Sharon McIlroy were the featured artists at a Coffeehouse. The duo performed a variety of music much to the delight of the small, but appreciative audience.

A Shakespearean mood was set by the Society for Creative Anachronism as they performed Elizabethan dances.

Frolic Flings Campus into Spring

From March 28 to April 3, 1982, St. Edward's community was engulfed by a madness known as Spring Fling. Spring Fling Week, a SAC sponsored event, featured a Crazy Olympics, a dance with the crowning of Miss SEU, and a Name the Man contest.

The Crazy Olympics featured grueling athletic competition between members of the four classes. After such trying events as egg toss, marshmallow stuffing, and the dreaded three-legged race, the sophomore class, by virtue of its overall success on the day, was declared champion.

Saturday night, April 3, the Student Union was the place to go as the Sophomore class and SAC sponsored the Spring Fling Dance. Weary students were given a chance to unwind and dance to the music of The Holidays. Senior Agnes Fuccello was crowned Miss SEU, as voted by her peers. Senior Laura Lynn Makay was named princess, while junior Aleta Brentley, sophomore Maria Solis, and freshman Kathy Lind were all proclaimed duchesses.

Vern Earl Equinox was the name junior Dave Koempel created to capture the personality of the Spring Fling Mascot, a cartoon character created by junior Anna Marie Flanigan. Other activities included a Madrigal dinner and local Mime-juggler Mario Lorenz.

The first annual Spring Fling Week provided students and faculty the chance to relax and prepare for the final stretch of classes.

Potpourri of Talent

Outside the air was cool and misty, but inside the energy flowed as a crowd of 150 gathered for the First Annual Student Review. Under the direction of Richard Lemen, the cast of 23 dynamic performers transformed the gymnasium atmosphere of the Union Center into that of an off-Broadway stage. From the first moment when the lights went up and the opening performer's foot hit the stage, the electricity never stopped.

The Review was an ensemble production—there was no one star. The audience was entertained by the Roche Sisters and the graceful Jaws Ballet, and kept in stitches with the spoof of the faculty and administration in the Family Feud sequence.

The motley group of dancers was galvanized into a well synchronized, classy taste of the Broadway sparkle in "All That Jazz." "The Pirates of Penzance" showcased the talents of duo Richard Lemen and Deborah Harris.

The success of the Review and the positive reactions of the audience have insured the return of the student Review in years to come.

Heritage Around the Globe

The Ballet Folklorico entertains the large audience.

April 28 was a day of cultural excitement as the Student Activities Council sponsored Heritage Day '82. The activities of the day were centered around the lunch hours, and the cafeteria crew supplied an array of international cuisine for the hungry students. Among the many dishes served during the two-hour event in the Union Center were beef curry, egg rolls, sausage and enchiladas. Also on the agenda for Heritage Day were the songs and dances of many nations.

Guitarist Scott Cain provided the audience with a beautiful mixture of tunes from around the globe. SEU students Steve Gomez, Jesse Garcia and Peter Tovar performed native Spanish music. The Ballet Folklorico Aztlán de Tejas and the Folk Ethnic Dancers displayed dances native to Mexico, Germany and Poland.

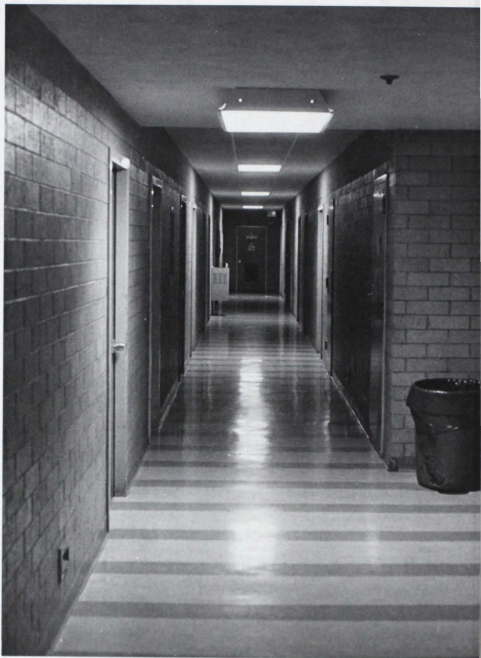

In today's diverse world, Heritage Day highlighted the similarities among people and emphasized the need for mutual acceptance.

The Hilltopper, St. Edward's student newspaper, had a record year in 1981-82, earning the University's first First Class Rating from the Associated Collegiate Press (ACP).

The ACP is the critical judging service of the National Scholastic Press Association.

The Hilltopper was awarded the rating after a judging process that compared it with other newspapers from universities of similar size throughout the country.

The rating was based on an analysis of five categories: Coverage and Content; Writing and Editing; Editorial Leadership and Opinion Features; Physical Appearance and Visual Communication; and Photography. Art and Use of Graphics.

The Hilltopper first entered the competition in 1977 and won second class ratings until this year.

When Editor Lisa Delaney and Managing Editor Jim Franz began publication September 18, they set out to produce a newspaper of superior quality. Long hours of hard work resulted in a Hilltopper that quickly became a regular part of the Friday morning routine on campus.

Hilltopper editors, writers, and photographers were also honored at an end-of-the-year picnic. Awards for Outstanding Journalism were presented to: Lisa Delaney and Jim Franz for Best News Story; Anna Marie Flanigan for Best Feature Story; Aristotle Toumazis for Best Review; Ted Stavinocha for Best Sports Story; Lisa Delaney and Jim Franz for Best Editorial; Susie Martinez for Best News or Feature Photo; and Sandra Guerra and Al Puento for Best Sports Photo.

We're still number one!

The 1981-82 Hiltopper basketball team, young and inexperienced at the beginning of the season, worked hard and combined talents to head down the road of the Big State Conference Playoffs. By defeating East Texas Baptist by five and Southwestern by eight, the Toppers were then eligible for the NAIA District IV Playoff game. This tough game ended with St. Ed's down by three, for a 16-17 record. Included in this final posting was a 9-5 Conference stand.

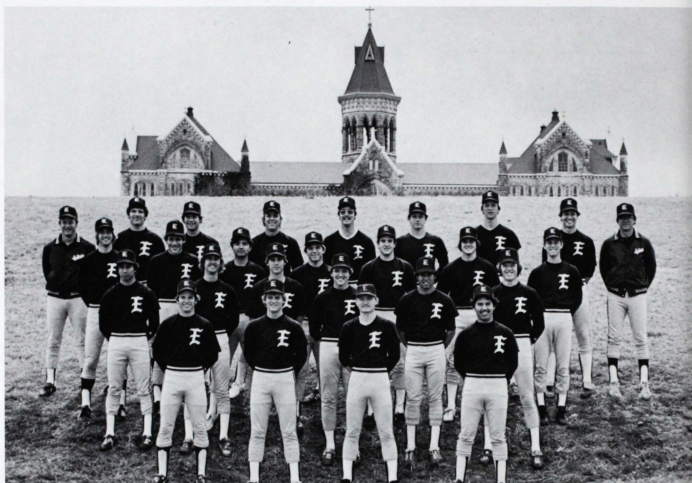

Instrumental in the Toppers' season were senior Marcus Jones and junior Jimmy Wright. Both players were named to the First Team All-Conference, an honor that has eluded St. Edward's players for the past two years. These two players wrote the books for individual single game highs for this year. Jones had the most points (40 vs. Texas Wesleyan), most field goals (19 vs. Texas Wesleyan) and most assists (7 vs.

Mary Hardin-Baylor). Wright led in most free throws (10 vs. St. Mary's) and most rebounds (19 vs. Southwestern). They also led the team in points per game average with 17.2 for Jones and 17.1 for Wright.

Four players—Jerry Farias, Jones, Wright and Steve Martin—played all 33 games of the season. Farias led his teammates in free throw percentage for the year with 72.9. He also led in assists with 115 for a 3.5 per game average. Martin was second behind Larry Kruse in rebounds with 164 for an average of 5.0 per game.

The Tower salutes both Marcus Jones and Mark Bird, the only seniors on the squad. Bird played the first nine games of the season before he was sidelined with an injury that kept him out of the line-up the rest of the year.

Men capture titles in BSC tourney

Kevin Mullins, Mangus Rosen, Mark Platt, and Mark Bennett represented the St. Edward's tennis team April 19th and 20th in the Big State Conference tournament held in Beaumont. Mullins and Rosen combined their talents to win the doubles' title while Bennett and Rosen were to have faced each other for the singles title earlier this week.

Each player was placed in a division according to his ranking on the team. Mullins played in the first division, Rosen in the second, Platt in the third, and Bennett in the fourth. In each division, the men played three matches, then were paired against another division winner.

The pairings of Divisions I-IV put Mullins and Bennett against each other while Rosen opposed the Division III winner. This winner achieved his position due to the default of Platt who was injured and unable to continue play.

In the Mullins-Bennett match-up, Bennett came out ahead with scores of 2-6, 6-3, 6-2. Rosen upset his East Texas Baptist foe handily by scores of 6-1, 6-1.

Coach Emmett Strohmeyer said his players, "played spectacularly in singles and doubles." He noted the move of the tournament from the outdoor surface to indoor concrete courts, but said the change didn't seem to bother the players.

Earlier this week, the SEU team was also to have played Southwest Texas State for a chance to go to the national competition.

Golf Team Strokes Its Way to Third

SEU golfers prepare for upcoming Big State Conference tournament

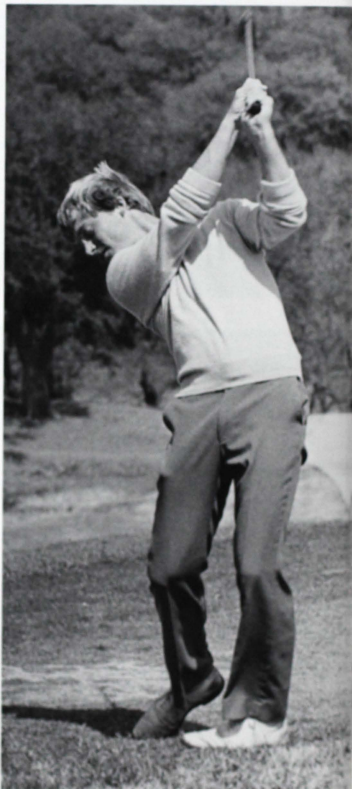

The Big State Conference Golf Tournament is scheduled for April 19 and 20 in Killeen. Five St. Edward's golfers will participate, with the four best scores of each day recorded.

Coach Jim Koch says, "Joe Beck and Joe Fenton will probably place first for us, followed by Mike Meyer and Tim Tobin." Tobin, according to Koch, hadn't been playing earlier in the season, "but is playing now and should do well." Junior Gary Thompson and freshman Tom Bagby round out the SEU team.

Koch continued, stating that "Texas Lutheran is favored to win. We will be vying with Mary Hardin-Baylor for second place. We have a good chance, but TLC is favored going into the tournament."

According to the coach, St. Mary's should take third or fourth. East Texas Baptist and Southwestern will battle for the next spot and Huston-Tillotson will probably take the last position.

Golf Team Hopes For A Top Place

The St. Edward's 1982 golf team is a promising young team which should take a top spot in the Big State Conference tournament, according to its optimistic coach, Jim Koch.

In a tournament which included Mary Hardin-Baylor, Texas Lutheran, and Southwest Texas State, Joe Beck, whom Koch says is "the number one player," shot a 76, while Joe Fenton and Mike Meyer were close behind in the upper 70's. "By April," says Coach Koch, "we'll have five guys in the 70's going to the conference tournament."

The team consists of three freshmen — Beck, Meyer, and Tom Bagby; two sophomores — Fenton and Gary Thompson; and one junior — Tim Tobin.

Koch states, "We should do well this season. We lost to Texas Lutheran by 8-10 strokes, which isn't too much to make up."

Toppers place third in BSC standings

The seven teams in the Big State Conference battled for the golf championship recently. This tournament saw the Toppers place third, behind Texas Lutheran and Mary Hardin-Baylor.

The leading golfer for the SEU team was freshman Joe Beck, who shot a 75 on the first day of play and a 77 on the second for a tournament score of 152. Following Beck was sophomore Gary Thompson with a 156 total, shooting a 79 and a 77.

Sophomore Mike Meyer and junior Tim Tobin both brought in final scores of 161. Meyer's first and second day standings were 80 and 81, respectively. Tobin had the same scores in reverse for the Toppers' cause. The other team member, Joe Fenton, shot an 81 and an 82 for a 163 tournament total.

Fifty-four holes of golf were scheduled, but hard rain, cold wind, and lightning shortened the second day to only nine holes for a total of 36 in the decisive match.

Of the tournament rounds, Coach Jim Koch said: "We shot very well as a team. Beck was outstanding. Thompson was a surprise because he had never shot that well over the season."

Of the season, an optimistic Fenton said, "We will be a deciding force in the conference next year and the year after. We had a young team this year and we did well. Everyone is returning and Tim will be the only senior."

Ladies Receive BSC Honors

by LISA DELANEY
Editor

SEU Head Coach Sharon McIlroy was named Coach of the Year, and three Lady Toppers were awarded membership on the All-Conference Team, as the Big State Conference announced its awards for the 1981-82 basketball season.

McIlroy, a second-year coach from Lubbock, Texas, was "shocked" when she heard the news. "It is hard for me to comprehend, since we finished last in conference play this year," she says. "But I am very honored."

The SEU coach tied for the award with Southwestern University's Coach Reda Clay. Coaches from all participating conference teams nominate and vote for the outstanding coach of the season.

"The award is indicative of the past two seasons and the progress we have made," states McIlroy. "It is an honor that the other coaches recognized our progress in this way."

McIlroy received her B.S. in Education from Texas Tech University, and continued at Tech for her Masters in Public Health and Physical Education. She taught health and biology and coached girls' basketball, tennis, track, golf, and volleyball at the high school level before assuming her position as head coach in September, 1980.

"I am proud and honored that I can represent St. Edward's in a positive manner," says McIlroy.

Freshman Angie Neal was named to the All-Conference First Team. Neal, who came to St. Edward's from Reagan High School in Austin, averaged 16 points per game in her first season of college ball. She was second on the team in rebounds, with a season total of 196.

The freshman starter was also named to the NAIA District IV All-District team. District IV includes the schools in the Big State Conference and the Lone Star Conference.

Also named to the first team was senior Kathryn Hopkins. Hopkins has lettered in volleyball and basketball each of her four years at St. Edward's, and was named to the BSC All-Conference Volleyball team for the 1981-82 season. Hopkins was top rebounder this year for the women, with a season total of 226, and also led in assists, setting a new season record with 62. She was recruited from Austin Anderson High School.

Membership on the second team from the Lady Toppers was awarded to Sonya Binger, a freshman from Mansfield High in Mansfield, Texas. Binger sat out much of the season with injuries and illnesses, but was still able to average ten points per game and rack up 54 season steals.

McIlroy is "pleased that we had as many players on the All-Conference teams as we did. The two freshmen that were selected are indicative of the potential that this team will have in future years," she continues. "All three players are well-deserving of the award."

Women Netters Break Even

St. Edward's women bring record to 7-7

Over the Easter break, the Lady Toppers saw plenty of tennis action, but were unable to come up with any victories. They dropped their matches against East Texas Baptist, Texas A&I, and Southwestern, bringing the season record to an even 7-7 mark.

Facing East Texas Baptist, the women found themselves on the short end of the 5-1 score. The only win was recorded by the doubles combination of sophomore Laura Yzaguirre and junior Barbara Sollohub.

The SEU team once again was overpowered by the opposition as Texas A&I won by a 4-2 margin. The singles play of Yzaguirre combined with the doubles win of Margaret Cooper and Michelle Jackson gave the Toppers their set victories. Cooper's usual partner, Leisia Hunter, was unable to play, but the Cooper-Jackson team proved itself able to handle the pressure.

The Big State Conference (BSC) match-up of St. Edward's and Southwestern saw the Georgetown women blank the Austin ladies as the Toppers were handed a 0-6 defeat.

As a result of this match, the Southwestern team will be the representative of the BSC against the winner of the Lone Star Conference. The winner of this pairing will go on to the nationals.

Earlier this week, the ladies were to have played Concordia Lutheran College to close out their season.

Looking back on the season, Coach Diane Daniels stated: "It was a good season. There was a lot of improvement. Laura (Yzaguirre) improved tremendously, becoming more consistent and aggressive. Barbara Sollohub and Jean Law added some depth, too, this year. Barbara played the number two singles spot very well. She is an aggressive player."

4-3 Victory

Women Netters Start Season

The St. Edward's women's tennis team began its season with a 4-3 victory over Texas Lutheran in Seguin.

The team is composed of eight players — Margaret Cooper, Jean Law, Barbara Sollohub, Lesia Hunter, Michelle Jackson, Melanie Ferguson, Laura Yzaguirre, and Pat Rodriguez.

The first-rated player is Lesia Hunter, followed by Sollohub. According to Coach Diane Daniels, "The positions from third to fifth are very closely competed for by the remaining players."

Daniels says, "The team this year is very close in ability. There is more depth than last year. I can also see more enthusiasm in this year's team than last year's."

When asked about the season and the Toppers' competition in particular, Daniels stated, "Southwestern is our biggest competition. Mary Hardin-Baylor has only one returning player, so, according to the coach, it is hard to tell how they will compare when it comes time to return serves and volleys." Coach Daniels continued, "Huston-Tillotson is not that strong this year."

The conference playoff is between the winner of the conference round robin tournament and the winner of the Lone Star Conference. Daniels is optimistic about this season.

Senior veteran Margaret Cooper shares some of her coach's enthusiasm. She noted that "the team is very competitive among itself. We do well because we are all at the same level for the most part. Nobody is way behind anybody else."

The next women's home match will be March 3, at 2 p.m. against Concordia.

Lady Netters To Oppose BSC Foes Southwestern, MHB

The Lady Netters will soon be starting their Big State Conference matches.

To start play off, on Monday, April 5, the women travel to Belton to face Mary Hardin-Baylor. On Wednesday at 2 p.m., the ladies will host Southwestern of Georgetown. Thursday, the team hosts Texas A&I in a non-conference tennis match.

The women are optimistic about their chances at the conference title. Although seven teams are in the conference, only three compete for the women's title.

"We have been able to boost the team's confidence by only losing two matches this year," says Margaret Cooper. "That's a good feeling to have with conference play starting."

Seedings for the singles are pretty much determined. Playing in the No. 1 position will be Lesia Hunter, followed by — in order of ranking — Barbara Sollohub, Margaret Cooper, Laura Yzaguirre, Jean Law, and Michelle Jackson.

As for doubles rankings the No. 1 and 2 teams are still up in the air. At present, Sollohub and Yzaguirre share the No. 1 spot, with Hunter and Cooper playing in the second position.

"Our doubles play has been the strong point of team play this year," feels Cooper. "In challenges against each other, we have both won about the same amount of times."

Rankings for conference play will more than likely depend on the Concordia and the Texas Lutheran matches played earlier this week.

The team faces Southwestern University on Wed., April 7, at 2 p.m.

Netters See Action Here

The Lady Netters will play two home matches this week.

On Saturday, March 6, at 1 p.m., the team will face John Brown University of Arkansas. On Monday, March 8 at 10 a.m., they will play against a conference opponent, St. Mary's of San Antonio.

In a match last week against Trinity, the team lost 6-1. The only team win came from the second-rated doubles team of Laura Yzaguirre and Barbara Sollohub, 6-4 and 6-1.

"Trinity is probably one of the best teams we play," Yzaguirre said.

When asked about the teams overall play, she stated, "We didn't play badly for the start of the season, but our inexperience really showed. We only have two players back from last year's team."

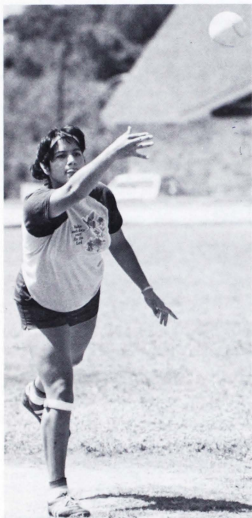

She added that "teamwise, there is a lot of enthusiasm. We just need to really concentrate on individual performances in singles. Right now our doubles teams are the stronger."

The women were to have faced Concordia earlier this week.

CLOSING

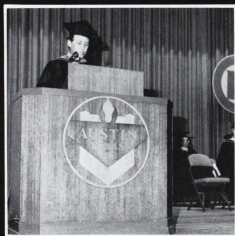

Laura Makay crosses the stage to receive her diploma.

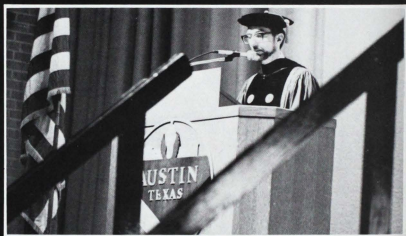

A happy graduate.

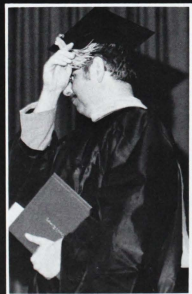

Commencement 1982

Br. Henry Altmiller reads the degree.

Br. Jim Hanson addresses the graduates.

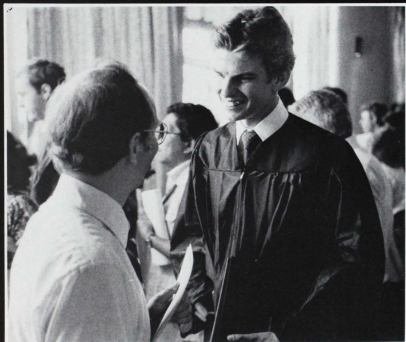

A graduate of the Master's program.

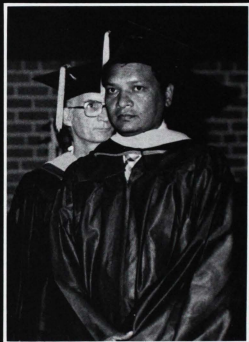

A large audience witnesses the conferring of degrees.

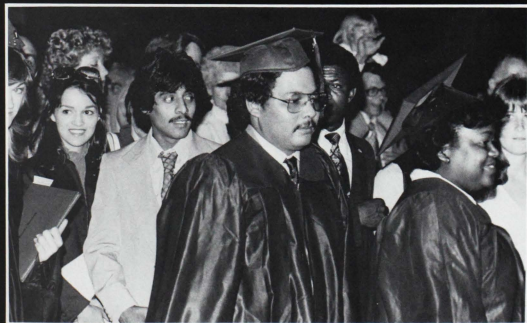

Faculty dignitaries and distinguished guests await the distribution of the diplomas.

Dr. Penn congratulates Chris Ozarzak after the ceremony.

Waiting for that glorious moment.

The graduates, with degrees in hand, process out.

A graduate leaves the stage with his degree amid photographers.

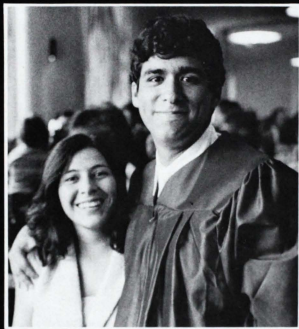

Jim Franz sighs with relief.

A graduate receives his diploma from Br. Stephen Walsh.

Jeff Clarke and Laura Makay.

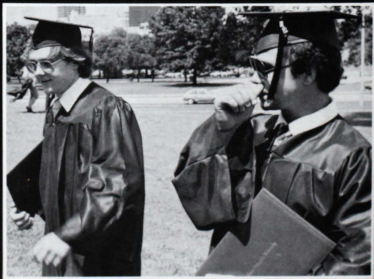

John Nira smiles after graduation.

An excited graduate.

Posing for the traditional post-graduation pictures.

Diplomas in hand—graduates depart.

Michael Alan Villarreal
 Sept. 23, 1962—May 24, 1981

It is difficult to express the actual feeling that is felt,
But it's easier to compare the feeling with something that is pleasant and wonderful.
The feeling could be compared to the sun that shines through the tower,
Or the blue bonnets on the hill swaying with the passage of time.
The feeling has to be compared because it cannot be described.
If it was described it would lose the essence of its mysterious beauty.
The feeling seems to be so traditional and supreme,
It gives me the satisfaction of what might be a start to the future.

Margaret Cooper
