Alicia Keil holds the record for total pledges received by a single volunteer in Phonothon's 11 year history.

Phonothon 1988

With the combined efforts of over 250 volunteers the Phonothon goal of $180,000 was reached. We were thrilled with the participation this year!" said Annual Fund Director Martha St. Romaine. "I am thankful to everyone who helped make Phonothon a great success. Everyone did an outstanding job."

"Help Continue the Tradition" was the theme of Phonothon '88 which was held October 23 - 27 in the auxiliary gym of the RCC. The annual fundraising event involves calling SEU alumni and parents and asking them to pledge donations to the university's Annual Fund. It is this fund which helps meet the difference between what students can pay and the actual cost per student of running SEU by providing monies for financial aid, faculty and staff salaries, and the physical operation of the university.

This year over 250 people, mostly students, volunteered for the event and had a great time meeting new people, talking to old friends, and winning fabulous prizes. Organizations which were highly visible working at the event were Physical Plant, SAI, and SAC. Alicia Keil was declared first prize winner overall for collecting over $23,000 and was awarded two tickets to the Robert Plant concert. Other highly successful fundraisers were Matt Young ($17,000), Katrina Coortinoesis, Esther Leanos, and Rozi Mendoza.

For those who didn't raise quite as many donations, there were hourly and nightly prizes such as dinners, records, and posters. And of course there were plenty of snacks and drinks furnished for everyone!

According to St. Romaine, this year's Phonothoners received increased numbers of new and increased pledges which should make next year's event even more successful.

The ReUnion

Everyday, hundreds of students frequent the student union enjoying cold drinks, pizzas, and the latest news. While nearly every S.E.U. student has been in the ReUnion during his or her time here not everyone knows the ReUnion's unique history or the names behind the faces that work there.

From 1883 to 1970 the ReUnion was the site of the university's natatorium, or indoor swimming pool. This natatorium, filled by an artesian well, was the first one built in Texas and was promoted as the university's prime amenity. The pool survived a tornado in 1922, the capping of the well in 1938 and was used until 1970 when the building was renovated and designated as the student union.

The ReUnion was the place to meet and eat on campus. In 1987 ARA Services officially assumed management of the ReUnion. Since then ARA has continued to make available a wider range of foods including hamburgers, baked potatoes,

As a paper air balloon hovered over the Moody atrium, inviting students to "Tour the world" World culture day was held on Wednesday March 15.

The event co-sponsored by SAC and the International Club, invited students from different cultures to share their traditions, exotic foods and historical artifacts with the SEU community. A total of ten cultures were represented: the Caribbean, Icelandic, Indian, Iranian, Japanese, Mexican-American, Mexican, Oman, Pakistani and Qatar.

World culture day was joined by a Clubs and Organizations Fair, sponsored by the office of Students Activities. While the events were planned separately, they occurred in the same place and complimented one another.

Student Admissions Foundation

STUDENT ADMISSIONS FOUNDATION is a group of volunteer students who assist the Admissions Office in the recruiting process. S.A.F. members help by phoning, writing to, and hosting prospective SEU students. S.A.F. members also give campus tours and travel with Admissions Office Representatives to recruiting fairs and meetings at high schools and colleges. The group's Student Coordinators were D.J. Lopez and Michael "Woodie" Wong. Adviser was Betty Gibbs.

College Republicans & Young Democrats

Jeff Wilson

The S.E.U. DEMOCRATS increased students' political awareness by sponsoring voter registration drives, a debate, and participating on the state leadership level. Chapter officers were President, Geronimo Rodriguez Jr.; Vice-President, Vice-President, David Pena Jr.; Secretary, Christina Vanover; and Delegate to State College Democrats, Mary Kay Misko. State officers were, Chairperson of College Democrats Board, Mary Kay Misko; Minority Caucus Chairman, Geronimo Rodriguez; Minority Caucus Secretary/Treasurer, Rosa Macias; Minority Institutions Committee Chairperson, David Pena Jr. Adviser was Ed Shirley.

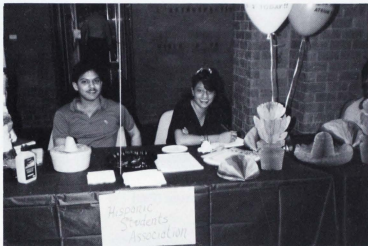

The College Republicans existed to educate the student body and to promote Republican values and candidates. The Club sponsored a Voter Registration Drive and participated in a debate with the S.E.U. Democrats. Club officers were President, Michael O'Brien; Co-Vice-Chairmen, Bessie thibodeaux and Jim Robinson, and Treasurer, Joanna Lothringer. Adviser was J.D. Lewis.

Hispanic Students' Association

The Hispanic Students' Association strove to increase Hispanic cultural awareness and sponsored and participated in several cultural events in the S.E.U. and Austin communities. The group co-sponsored events such as the Diez y Seis de Septiembre Celebracion, Posada, Multi-Music Dance and the World Culture Fair. They also brought singer Gary Hobbs to the annual music festival (Hillstock).

Off-campus the group participated in grape boycotts at local supermarkets, attended Hispanic art shows and attended leadership conferences.

Group officers were President, David Pena Jr.; Vice-President, Rosa Macias; Treasurer, MaryAnn Martinez; and Secretary, Diana Espinosa. Advisers were Esiquio Uballe and Randa Safady.

Mary Ann Martinez and Rosa Macias were active supporters of the United Farm Workers and worked to bring the grape boycott to the attention of SEU students. They were also primarily responsible for bringing Tejano music star Gary Hobbs to SEU's Hillstock Music Festivals.

Lynnette Perez

Diana Espinosa works on a banner for a joint HSA-SAC event. Throughout the year the two groups worked together to sponsor fun activities like the Diez y Seis de Septiembre Celebracion, Posada, and World Culture Fair.

Multi-Cultural Committee

The Student Activities Council's Multi-Cultural Committee programmed events designed to increase students' cultural awareness and appreciation. The group worked with other SAC Committees such as Music and Ideas and Issues to sponsor events like Jamaica Relief Week and Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Remembrance Day. The committee also worked with other student organizations such as the Hispanic Students' Association, International Club, Pax Christi, Campus Ministry, and the Young Democrats to sponsor events like the Posada, Diez Y Seis Celebration, Arabian Concert, Multi-Music Dance, and World Culture Fair.

Committee leaders were Coordinator Lynnette Perez, Assistant Coordinator (Fall) Shawna Carter, Assistant Coordinator (Spring) Maria Cerda, and Publicity Coordinator David Pena. Fr. Roger Temme, Dr. Terry Newton, Cecil Lawson, Pam VanderWerf, and Michele Moragne e Silva shared their insight into multi-cultural concerns with the committee. SAC Adviser was Steve Hall.

Student Leadership Training Program

STUDENT LEADERSHIP TRAINING PROGRAM

The S.L.T.P. is a year long program for current and potential leaders. The purpose of the program is to develop future S.E.U. and community leaders. Membership is by application and all students are invited to apply in September of each year.

Students in the S.L.T.P. participated in two retreats and several workshops as well as sponsoring a community service activity. Participants learned essential leadership skills such as Public Speaking, Communication Styles, Ethical Leadership, Goal Setting, etc. S.L.T.P.ers also planned and carried out a carwash and Blanket Drive for Victory Outreach, an Austin organization that works with the city's homeless. Students who graduate from the program often go on to become campus leaders. Through active participation in workshops, activities, leadership games and team builders, Student Leadership

Carmen Maverick

Games such as The Electric Fence require students to improvise, think critically, and cooperate to achieve a common goal. In this game participants must get each squad member over the rope without touching it.

Training Program graduates do indeed have the knowledge and basic skills to make a difference in their fields and in the SEU and Austin communities. Coordinators of the program were the Student Leadership Team members. Advisers were Bill Quinn and Pam VanderWerf.

The Team

STUDENT LEADERSHIP TEAM

The S.L.T. was responsible for coordinating and selecting participants for the Student Leadership Training Program. Team members were experienced leaders who use their knowledge to develop current and future campus leaders and to further develop their own skills.

This year the S.L.T. not only coordinated the S.L.T.P. but also facilitated an event for the Big Brothers Big Sisters Program and led icebreakers for Project Crossroads.

Fall semester S.L.T.ers were Carmen Maverick, Denise Beck, Aziz Hirani, Marcia Meuhr, and Debbie Umphrey. Spring semester S.L.T.ers were Carmen Maverick, Debbie Umphrey, Joe Green, Lynn Fast, Helen Cyr, Alicia Keil, and Elizabeth Streng. Advisers were Bill Quinn and Pam VanderWerf.

Campus Ministry

Fr. Roger Temme and Becky Shickell shared their love and warmth with everyone they met. Together they were friends and advisers to the many students involved in the Core Group, Hunger Awareness Organization, Pax Christi, and the weekly celebrations of mass.

The Campus Ministry office was the place to go to for guidance, involvement, or a friendly talk with Fr. Roger. Campus Ministry's Core Group, advised by Becky Shickell, met bi-weekly to share thoughts, pray, and plan events such as the Food and Flicks series co-sponsored with DAB. Core Group members also helped during masses and sponsored retreats. Other groups sponsored by Campus Ministry were the Hunger Awareness Organization and Pax Christi.

Pax Christi and Hunger Awareness

PAX CHRISTI is the International Catholic Peace Movement. The group's purpose is to respond to the Christian call to peacemaking and to commit to the principles of non-violence and justice. S.E.U.'s Pax Christi group met bi-weekly to share ideas, discuss issues, and plan activities. The group co-sponsored Hands Around the Grotto and Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Remembrance Day. They also sponsored Peace Week which included a Peace Walk to Bergstrom Air Force Base and the rededication of the Peace Pole and participated in many off-campus peace activities. The group was sponsored by Campus Ministry. Advisers were Fr. Roger Temme, Br. William Dunn, and Ed Shirley.

HUNGER AWARENESS ORGANIZATION

This organization's purpose is to raise awareness about hunger both locally and internationally by having fundraisers and other activities to involve students in making a difference. This year H.A.O. co-sponsored Peace Week, brought Bread for the World's campaign to fully fund the W.I.C. Program to campus, and sponsored a Thanksgiving Food Drive. HAO also sponsored its annual Hunger Cleanup in April. The organization was sponsored by Campus Ministry and was advised by Fr. Roger Temme, Becky Shickell, Sue Fitzgerald and Bob Fastiggi. Student coordinators were Chris Darwin, Laura Ham, and Juan Gonzales.

Alpha Phi Sigma

ALPHA PHI SIGMA is S.E.U.'S Criminal Justice Honor Society. The society promotes high scholarship and professional preparation. This year the group sponsored several fundraisers including the November Basketball Tournament. The 1988-1989 chapter officers were President, Bonnie Lopez; Vice-President, John T. Nash; Secretary, Jeff Motley; and Treasurer, Steven Mumma. Adviser was Dr. David Horton.

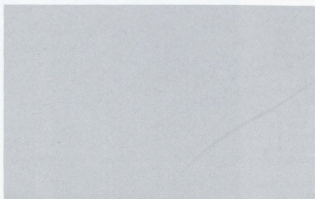

Jeff Wilson

Criminal Justice Club

CRIMINAL JUSTICE CLUB The purpose of the C.J. Club is to promote interaction and scholarship among students pursuing careers in criminal justice. Through field trips, speakers, and regular meetings, C.J. Club members keep up with issues and advancements in their field.

This year the club sponsored many successful fundraisers including the second annual Friday Nite Music Jam. The club's officers were President, Rosa Macias; Vice-President, Rosi Briones; Secretary, Judy Anderson, and Treasurer, Martha Loera. Adviser was Dr. David Horton.

Jeff Wilson

Rosa Macias, Rosi Briones, Judy Anderson, and Martha Loera were committed officers.

Hands Around the Grotto

Jeff Wilson

Jeff Wilson

One hundred and fifty people ringed the Grotto to raise awareness about hunger – both locally and globally.

Jeff Wilson

Oct. 19, 1988, marked the third annual "Hands Around the Grotto" ceremony. Sponsored by the Hunger Awareness Organization (HAO) and Pax Christi, this event served to heighten awareness of starving people around the globe.

Speakers included Father Roger Temme, Professor Edward Shirley, humanities student David Stadthagen and Resident Assistant Darlene Krenek. Participants were invited to hold hands around the lawn in front of the stone alcove, sing songs and meditate on the conditions of those less fortunate.

Several hundred prayers for the relief of hunger were released in balloons as the ceremony closed.

Issues of Christian responsibility were the focus of a talk by Ed Shirley, Religious Studies instructor.

Kathleen Person is the keeper of the balloons which contain messages of how to assist the hungry.

Festival of Lights

Dec. 9, 1988 heralded the coming Christmas season with a glorious display of lights, song and holiday spirit embodied in the tenth annual Festival of Lights.

This event has become a meaningful tradition at St. Edward's as a communal celebration of the season of giving. Having begun as an idea generated by SEU students several years ago, the event is now sponsored by SAI.

Student volunteers placed 500 luminarias along the main campus drive in preparation for the 6:30 p.m. celebration in front of Old Main. Participants gathered around the steps of SEU's most prestigious building with lit candles in hand, brought together by a sense of goodwill and peace in longing for the season of Christ's birth.

The event, following a program of prayer and singing, was topped off by the lighting of Old Main in the glory of multi-colored Christmas lights.

Spring Fling/Casino Night

The SAC-sponsored Spring Fling treated students to "a touch of class": a night at the luxurious Hyatt Regency on town lake, and a gourmet meal. Combined with Delta Sigma Pi's Casino night, the annual event offered plenty of entertainment and delivered a rousing good time to all who attended.

Mardi Gras

Some students chose Bourbon Street.
Some students braved icy "Fat Saturday" winds and chose Moody Atrium.
Most of SEU's campus party goers donned Mardi Gras masks and danced despite the weather and the distance from Louisiana.

Decorated in traditional purples, Moody's Atrium served as a local pre-Lenten party pavillion.

Computer Fever

1989 saw the first occurrence of computer viruses on the St. Edward's campus, causing computers and printers to malfunction. Viruses are mini-programs that attach themselves to computer files and spread from machine to machine via floppy disks and networks.
